A homeowner asked if filming is allowed in the HOA. The Board advised that both a City permit and HOA permission would be necessary before any filming takes place, but specifics regarding the filming would be necessary before further guidance could be given. The homeowner said that she asked out of curiosity.

A homeowner expressed safety concerns, based on the recent fire. She asked whether the HOA could implement an emergency alert system to warn and update homeowners in emergency situations. The Board advised that a warning system was beyond the scope of an HOA's function.
